CRUISE CROATIA • DALMATIAN PEARLS •

M/V DARLI ★★★★★

Standard cruise itinerary, 8 days, 7 nights

Provides a luxury vacation on the ship that also includes visiting unspoiled nature, two National Parks and one Nature Park. This journey includes sightseeing tours around millenarian remnants of Roman towns and medieval history as well as visits to the numerous cultural and historical monuments and museums.

Day 1: Sibenik

Embarking and Check in at 15.00 h in Sibenik, the oldest Croatian town, where you can find the fortress of St. Mihovil and the famous cathedral of Sibenik.

The town is situated in the very heart of the Adriatic coast, on the mouth of the river Krka, hidden by the St. Ante canal.

During the ship's stay it is possible to visit the National Park 'Krka waterfalls. After the embarking, before dinner, our captain will welcome you on board with 'welcome drinks'. The ship leaves the port at 23:00 h, sailing towards Split.

Day 2: Split

MV Darli comes at 6:00 h to Split, the capital town of Dalmatia with the warm Mediterranean temperament and the palace of Dioklecian 1700 years old. The history of this unique Dalmatian town has been written ever since the life of the town has been protected by the UNESCO, and since the town entered the registry of the World Cultural Heritage.

You can join our excursion and visit some of the historic places situated near Split, like the ruins of Salona, fortress Klis and the well known shrine Medjugorje in Bosnia and Herzegovina. The ship stays overnight in Split.

Day 3: Island Vis

The MV Darli leaves Split at 7:00 h and arrives to Vis at around 11:00 h.

The Island Vis will dazzle you with its narrow Dalmatian alleys, fortresses on the entrance to the port, many oaks and beautiful beaches in the bay. Island Vis is ecologically clean area, rich with fish, lobsters with diving possibility. You can join the guided City tour around of the inland Vis and visit to the cave of Tito, or famous old city Komiza, or Island Bisevo and the Blue Cave.

At 23:00 h the ship continues the journey towards the Island Korcula.

Day 4: Korcula

MV Darli arrives around 6:00 h, at Korcula, one of the greenest islands in the Adriatic.

The island is rich with culture and art, and beautiful nature, small and hidden beaches and bays, with unpopulated small islands and stunning views. It is a typical medieval Dalmatian town, with its defensive towers, walls and many houses with red roofs.

Marco Polo (1254-1324), the famous world traveler and writer, was born in the old part of the town Korcula. Korcula has a long cultural and artistic tradition, which includes museums, galleries, festivals, and famous folk drama/dance 'Moreska'. The city excursion available.

The ship leaves Korcula at 23:00 h towards Dubrovnik

Day 5: Dubrovnik

Arrival around 6:00 h. Dubrovnik is one of the most beautiful towns in the world, because of its unique charm, stunning nature, historic and cultural monuments. It is famous as the city of poets, writers and scientists.

You can join one of our excursions and explore many attractive locations or sightseeing around Dubrovnik and the near by places. Also is possible to visit Kotor in Crna Gora as well as Bokakotor bay. Overnight stay in Dubrovnik

Day 6: Island Mljet – Island Hvar anchorage

The ship leaves Dubrovnik at 7:00 h, and continues towards the island Mljet where arrives around 11:00 h.

The island Mljet is one of the most beautiful islands in the Adriatic Sea, known for its old forests, rich flora and fauna with many beaches and a fascinating cultural heritage dating from the Illyrian and roman times.

The Lonely Planet calls it 'the most seductive Adriatic Island'.

According to the legend, Odysseus fell in love with the island and stayed on it for 7 years. On the island there is a famous national park with 2 lakes (Big and Small).

At 14:00 h the ships continues the journey towards the island Hvar. Upon arrival to the port of Hvar around 20:00 h, "Captain's Diner" will be served in beautiful surrounding and unforgettable landscape of Island Hvar.

Day 7: Island Hvar – Trogir anchorage

This island is one of the most popular Adriatic islands, known also under the name of 'the sunniest Adriatic Island' rich with cultural and historic monuments. In 1997. the Traveler Magazine listed Hvar among the 10 most beautiful islands in the world.

Since Hvar lies in the center of most of the sea routes, history has left here a lot of traces, maybe more than on any other Adriatic island.

The discoveries from the caves of Grapce and Marko made possible for the archeologists to identify the Croatian culture (from around 3500 to 2500 B.C.).

The hand painted pottery with spiral motifs is among the most decorative artifacts that come from the pre-Illyrian times, a part of the Aegean culture.

The guided excursions available.

At 13:00 h, MV DARLI heads towards Trogir, with estimated arrival in Trogir around 16:00h. City Tour available, to enjoy the old historical part of Trogir.

At 24:00 h the ship will sail towards Sibenik.

Day 8: Sibenik

The ship comes to the port of Sibenik around 6:00 h.

Breakfast and check out until 10:00 h.
