

THE AGATHA CHRISTIE SPECIAL

A legacy for everyone to enjoy

“The loveliest place in the world” Agatha Christie

Discover

After a multimillion pound refurbishment by the National Trust, Greenway House is finally open to visitors for the first time. Agatha Christie lived at Greenway for 38 years after buying the house in 1938 and making it her summer home. Greenway House and glorious woodland gardens ooze with an atmosphere of romantic wilderness. In a place where time's stood still, immerse yourself in a visually beautiful cruise and Greenway a legacy now for everyone to enjoy.
