

The Boathouse Cafe

PLYMOUTH BOAT TRIPS

FISHING - FERRY - CRUISING

From breakfast and light lunches through to evening dining, The Boathouse Cafe serves a classic menu of fresh, seasonal produce. We specialise in delicious, fresh fish and shellfish, caught each day by our own boats. We're also known for our fantastic coffee and scrumptious cake served on an antique plate!

Built into the fisherman's arches on Commercial Wharf, where our boats depart, The Boathouse Cafe is a stones throw from the historic Barbican. There's also plenty of outdoor seating on the quayside, with fantastic views for drinking and dining al fresco.

OPEN DAILY 8 'TIL LATE.

FISH 'N' TRIPS

BOAT FISHING

RUNNING DAILY

- 3 hour general fishing
- 4 hour deep sea fishing
- All equipment provided
- Keep what you catch for supper!
- Chance of seeing other wildlife

Remember, it's always better to be lucky than a good fisherman!

Conservation is at the core of our philosophy. We only harvest enough fish to satisfy your needs, the rest are released to fight another day!

KEEP WHAT YOU CATCH FOR SUPPER, OR TRY OUT 'CYC' - WE'LL 'COOK YOUR CATCH' AT THE BOATHOUSE CAFE!

CAWSAND FERRY

LINKING PLYMOUTH & CORNWALL

Unspoilt by time the historical fishing and smuggling villages of Cawsand and Kingsand offer secluded beaches, spectacular walks and magnificent scenery in this forgotten corner of Cornwall. You can be sure of a warm welcome in the many pubs, restaurants, shops and cafe's.

Regular daily crossings between the Cornish villages of Cawsand and Kingsand on the Rame peninsula and the Barbican Landing Stage on Plymouth's famous Barbican. This spectacular half hour crossing is the perfect way of visiting this beautiful part of Cornwall or going sight-seeing and shopping in and around Plymouth. A fantastic day out!
