Opened in July 1927, The Romney, Hythe and Dymchurch Railway is 131/2 miles of mainline in miniature. Once known as 'The World's Smallest Public

Railway', its founder Captain Howey, and its designer and builder Henry Greenly, have given us something that remains the most enjoyable way to see the Romney Marsh and to visit the seaside towns and villages served by our stations on the route.

A traditional and delightful seaside village with a well deserved reputation as 'The Children's Paradise', Dymchurch has superb beaches, MW's funfair, gift shops, cafés, Martello Towers and is home for the fictional smuggling vicar, Dr Syn. 5 miles from Hythe. Postcode: TN29 OPJ DYMCHURCH

The terminus station at Hythe has a well stocked gift shop with many souvenir items, a variety of railway publications, toys, models, confectionery and ice creams. A short (10 minutes) walk takes you to the historic High Street, one of the longest and with many independent shops. Postcode: CT21 6LD
