Tyne Tours

Join us for our Tyne Tours on Thursdays and Sundays. Instead of the normal ferry service from South Shields at 11.15 and 14.15, the ferry will cruise on the Tyne for 40 minutes with a taped commentary written by Janis Blower (from the Shields Gazette). The normal ferry service starts again from North Shields at 12.00 and 15.00.

Morning Tour - 11.15 Thursday and Sunday

The ferry sails to the mouth of the Tyne, past North Shields Fish Quay and Tynemouth Castle and Priory.

Afternoon Tour - 14.15 Thursday and Sunday

The ferry will travel as far as AMEC (subject to tides and river traffic). You'll see the Customs House, the Scandinavian Ferry Terminal and other sites from the river's industrial past and present.

Shields Ferry

From May 2006

Afternoon River Trips

Summer season 2006

A cruise along the river Tyne is a great way to spend a Sunday afternoon. There are two types of cruise on the Shields Ferry this summer -

- A three hour river cruise and a fascinating live commentary from Johnny Johnson, who was the Port of Tyne Authority's photographer.
- A three hour river cruise and live music and dancing from the 1940s to 1970s - from The Norman Brown Trio.

All cruises are on Sundays, and leave South Shields ferry landing at 1pm. They sail along the Tyne to NewcastleGateshead, arriving back at South Shields at around 4pm. You'll see the Customs House, Royal Quays, the Tyne's shipyards and riverside developments of North and South Tyneside before you arrive at the transformed Newcastle Quayside and Gateshead Quays, and view the Baltic, the Sage Gateshead and Millennium Bridge from the unique perspective of the river itself.

All cruises are on the Pride of the Tyne, the newest Shields Ferry.

On-board facilities

The Pride of the Tyne has seating for 220 passengers on the main deck, promenade deck and in the spacious saloon bar, which serves soft and alcoholic drinks, hot beverages, sweets and light snacks.

Wheelchair-friendly facilities include the main saloon and one of the ferry's toilets. The 2 metre wide boarding at South Shields offers convenient access for prams, buggies and wheelchairs.
